

Insurance and Out-of-Pocket Expenses

---

Unlike hearing aids, many insurance companies provide support for cochlear implantation and necessary equipment.

---

External equipment will come with a 5-year warranty on all major components and shorter warranties on other components.

---

Programming, testing, education, and troubleshooting services will be required. Some of these services may not be covered by your insurance company and will require a nominal, out-of-pocket fee.